THE LEGISLATURE.

The thirty-ninth session of the Wisconsin legislature will adjourn sine die on Friday, when it will have been in session one hundred and one days, which will make it the longest session since 1862. There have been six sessions of the legislature since the organization of the state government when the sessions extended over 100 days—1853, 122 days; 1866, 125 days; 1858, 125 days; 1861, 112 days; 1862, 122 days; and 1883, 101 days. Bills were introduced during the session to take from the treasury some three million dollars, but the total appropriations for the next biennial term will be a little over eleven hundred thousand dollars, nearly one half of this amount going to the charitable, reformatory and penal institutions. On the question of the printing investigation, the Gazette points with endorsement to the following paragraph from the State Journal:—"The printing investigation by a joint committee was in progress during nearly the entire session, but nothing was discovered to justify even as much as a suspicion of fraud or collusion on the part of any of the several persons interested—printers or printing commissioners; but the inquiry may result in some economy to the state by being the means of reducing the number of state reports published biennially."

It would be a wise thing to cut down the volume of the state printing. The Blue Book is getting too large, the two huge volumes known as "Governor's message and accompanying documents", could be easily dispensed with, and the report of the state board of supervision is getting too large by reason of the "Detailed list of expenditures", which the law compels the board to include in its report. There are many ways in which money could be saved in the printing account without depriving the people of much interesting reading.

The chief appropriations were these: Appropriating $601,400 to maintain the state prison, state hospitals, industrial school, state institute, school for blind and state school the next two years, and making improvements thereto.

Appropriating $15,000 to the state board of health to be used in combating contagious diseases.

Appropriating $50,000 to the Wisconsin Veterans' home.

Appropriating $26,000 to Bentley & Nowell to compensate them for losses incurred in rebuilding the south wing of the capitol after its collapse in 1883.

Appropriating about $20,000 to John Trumbull, N. M. Littlejohn and G. Anderson, of Whitewater; A. Hilker and others, of Racine; Saenger, Rockwell & Co., of Milwaukee, and others, for money expended on the new university buildings on account of charges in the architect's plans.

Appropriating one per cent annually of all state license received from railway, telegraph and telephone companies to the state university.

Appropriating annually to the State Agricultural society 10 per cent of the premiums paid by it.

Appropriating $5,000 for the establishment of a rifle range near Camp Douglas.

Appropriating $5,000 to the Wisconsin industrial school for girls.

Appropriating $4,000 to the Wisconsin Dairymen's association.

JOSEPH COOK ALARMED.

The Rev. Joseph Cook, who is all the time wandering over the country, crying "wo," "wo," was in Chicago Sunday. He told his hearers that the Jesuits had drawn words "for the destruction of the grand public school system of our land" and that they would win unless women were on the ballot. Then they could vote on school matters in Massachusetts as well as that had saved Boston and that state. —Tribune.

Mr. Cook has many strange fears in regard to the Jesuits and the common schools. As much as ten years ago Mr. Cook saw the coming of dark days for our common school system. He then thought the Catholics were conspiring to break up the free school plan, and that the time would not be far distant when the system would be crushed, or at least seriously crippled, by the growing opposition of Catholicism. But there never was a time in the history of common schools when this plan of educating the boys and girls of America, was more strongly grounded in the good will of the American people than now.

The Tribune makes one point against Mr. Cook's plea for the enfranchisement of women which is well taken:

While nearly all Catholics, both male and female, are opposed to female suffrage, yet if women were enfranchised they would soon be mustered at the polls, especially on all questions affecting church or religion, in the proportionate.

At the election in Boston to which Mr. Cook referred only a fraction of the Catholic women voted, while the Protestant women, who were more familiar with the idea of female voting, turned out almost en masse. But the next time there is a religious excitement they may expect to see a full female Catholic vote in that city. And then Mr. Cook will say that it was female suffrage that established sectarian public schools in Boston.

Again: "So great is the number of these who are born Catholics, that they are now Nothingarians or Agnostics, that it would be impossible, while men alone vote, to papalize the public schools. But for 10,000 American Protestant women who would cast Protestant votes if enfranchised there would be 25,000 domestics in their employ who would vote the other way and swamp the ballots of their mistresses. The latter have more mothers, cousins, and aunts than the former, and those who had gotten used to going to the polls would outvote them every time."

Those who stand in dread of the downfall of the common school system in this country are very foolishly alarmed. No calamity will befall it. No sectarian power will ever break it down. It will continue to grow and be popular with Americans notwithstanding the fearful forebodings of Mr. Cook, and likewise insipid of any opposition coming from any denomination whatever.

BOOMERS ON THE MOVE.

THE MARCH TO THE PROMISED LAND BEGAN.

Soldiers Lead the Way to the Borders of Oklahoma and Thousands of Axious Settlers Follow.

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan., April 18.—The most excitement prevails in this city, for the troops have left the plains to enter the promised land and the boomers and sightseers are following in their wake. Every camp is broken and the people are on the move. All is bustle, confusion, and mud. Wednesday afternoon the rush began to get to the edge of the line, and every boomer was an "Ell." Never before were such crowds seen in a border city. More than ten thousand men, women and children followed the soldiers across the Cherokee strip at daylight.

There is no end to the people pouring into this city. Standing room in a dry place is at a premium, and such things as beds to sleep in and tables to eat from are out of the question. So far the people are good-natured and there is no sign of the trouble expected Sunday night and Monday.

Great Rush at Caldwell.

CALDWELL, Kan., April 18.—The Oklahoma excitement is at a height here, it is almost impossible to get along the streets as the crowd is so dense. Five hundred wagons was the estimate placed on the arrivals of Wednesday, while the reports of those coming to-day double the amount. One townsite company will leave here tomorrow morning for Lisbon, which will consist of at least five hundred men. The Rock Island stage-line outfit, consisting of 100 horses with forty-five stages, has left for Ponca City to get horses for the rush. Capt. W. C. Wood of the Fifth Cavalry says he will search every outfit to make sure that there is no liquor of any description taken into Oklahoma. If he does he will prevent no less than a dozen men, who are camped here with all the way to Ponca City, from getting any whisky, who intend staying in saloons in Oklahoma. A bank was organized here yesterday by prominent capitalists, which will open for business on the 23d at Lisbon.

The boomers started together this morning, with the troops in front of them. It was a sight not often presented before in America—a thousand or more settlers marching toward homes under the regulation of the War Department. The settlers were all soldiers, sailors, and civilians. Most of them had comfortable carts. Some experienced frontiersmen say there will be no trouble of any sort at Lisbon, while others say it cannot be prevented. After Monday the soldiers cannot act except on request of the civil authorities, so the deputy marshals will have to do pretty much all the work of preserving order.

The Rush Elsewhere.

WELINGTON, Kan., April 18.—More than five hundred boomers and their outfit passed through to-day via Hummell. As a general rule the wagons and teams are of the best class and the boomers ruddy and strong, imbued with the idea that Oklahoma was a land flowing with milk and honey. In a week past the streams of white wagons steadily moving south has been very large.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 18.—As the reports for the opening of the Oklahoma lands draws near the capacity of the union depot in this city is taxed more and more every day. The settlers come from all over the country. To-day thirty Italians, fresh from the Castle of Milan, arrived. They are among the motley crowd. The arrival of about evenly divided between the Santa Fe and the Rock Island, which reach the eastern and western land offices respectively.

OZARK, Mo., April 18.—A man named Johnson shot and killed one Norman near Highlandville, this county, to-day. Both men were on their way to the Oklahoma country.

ABOUT HOMESTEAD ENTRIES.

Commissioner Stockslager Explains the Law Ready to Open Postoffices.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—Commissioner Stockslager has made public a letter concerning homestead entries in Oklahoma, in which, after describing the mode of properly making homestead entries, he says:

"The two classes of settlers or claimants the one whose settlement is a right in the time when they will have the superior right. When the inception of the claim is simultaneous—that is, at the same time precisely—the legal right is equal, and the question can be decided according to the equities and the land awarded to the party having the superior equity, if any. If none, then it has been the right to put the land up between the claimants and to award the right of entry to the one bidding the highest for the privilege."

"The act of March 2, 1880, enacts that until said lands are opened for settlement by proclamation of the President no person shall be permitted to enter upon and occupy the same, and no person violating this provision shall ever be permitted to enter any of said lands and acquire any right to the same. The President's proclamation of March 23, 1889, calls attention expressly to this provision, and directs that it be strictly enforced."

"I am not prepared in advance of a case arising to give an opinion as to what particular act or acts will be considered a violation of the law in this respect."

Arranging for Postoffices.

The postoffice department officials are making active preparations for the immediate opening of the two postoffices at Oklahoma—one at Kingfisher, stage station on the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe, and office inspectors are now on the ground examining proposed mail routes into the country and between all important points. For the present all mail will enter the Territory over the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad to its southern terminus, and from there it will be carried forward by government contractors over regularly established mail roads. These roads and rail facilities will equal the needs of the settlers. Mail for the land-office towns and other principal points will probably go forward on the very day or at least on the day following the one on which the President's proclamation goes into effect. Gen. Clarkson said to-day that twenty-five postoffices would be established in the new state, and that within a short time there would be 50. He had for many years been in the employ of a railroad company.

Brigadier-General Dawson Dead.

NEW YORK, April 18.—Brigadier-General Samuel Kennedy Dawson, United States Army (retired), died at Orange, N. J., Wednesday morning, after a short sickness.

Neatly-Worked Swindles.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., April 18.—The Great American Tea company of this city, in the hands of the sheriff. The manager has disappeared. An investigation shows that the entire stock is nothing but sawdust and will invoice about $35. The liabilities are unknown.

Agreed on a Postmaster.

PORT WAYNE, Ind., April 18.—The committee of fifty Republicans appointed to decide by ballot the postoffice contest in this city met in Morton Club hall and after sixteen ballots elected Mr. Higgins. He had for many years been in the employ of a railroad company.

Mr. Cook's Alarm.

BOSTON, April 18.—Mr. Cook, who is all the time wandering over the country, crying "wo," "wo," was in Chicago Sunday. He told his hearers that the Jesuits had drawn words "for the destruction of the grand public school system of our land" and that they would win unless women were on the ballot. Then they could vote on school matters in Massachusetts as well as that had saved Boston and that state. —Tribune.

The committee has decided to arrange for a literary and musical entertainment at Odd Fellows hall on Friday evening of next week, April 26th, to be followed by a social dance. The accommodations being limited, admittance will be restricted on this occasion to members of the order and their families.

Park commissioners Bump and Davies were on hand at an early hour this morning surveying, first the ragged pieces of paper strewn on the grass in the corn exchange park, and then a long handled rake down at Carl & Wilcox's grocery store. They appeared to be trying to solve the problem of expense—to pocket a muscle—and to decide which was the least expensive, to wait for a breeze to spring up and blow the paper off, or to walk down to the grocery store and borrow the rake and rake the paper off. While in this state of meditation a gentle zephyr passed that way, and away went the paper. "There, Dave, I told you I was right," exclaimed one of the commissioners to his colleague, as he looked up and saw the paper sailing up North Franklin street. "Now tell me that I don't understand why we are here." And yet there are some people who are opposing the confirmation of the park commissioners for fear taxes are to be increased.

The Woman's Suffrage Association will meet to-morrow, Friday, afternoon, at their rooms, 61 West Milwaukee St., at half past two o'clock. Subject for discussion: "Patriotism."

Rev. Mr. Wharton, of Milwaukee, was in the city to-day on his way to Evansville, where he lectures this evening. Mr. Wharton was formerly pastor of the Methodist church at Evansville.

The senior class of the high school have arranged an entertaining programme of public rhetorics which will be given at the high school building on to-morrow afternoon. The public is invited.

Remember the Easter Monday social dancing party to be given by the Concordia society at Concordia hall. Good music will be in attendance. Public invited. Tickets fifty cents. Good time for all.

Uncle Thomas Lappin is steadily regaining strength. He is now able to sit up several hours at a time, and walk a few steps. His intimate friends say he will be able to down town again before many days.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will hold a social and give a supper at the home of Mrs. Agnes Clark, 102 North Bluff street, second ward, on to-morrow evening. Supper promptly at six o'clock. All are welcome.

Articles have been filed in the office of the Secretary of State at Madison, incorporating "The LaPrairie Horse Company, of Janeville; capital $2,000; incorporators, Robert Pollock, John H. Haviland, William H. Howard and others; object, dealing in breeding horses.

The local Odd Fellows lodges are making arrangements for the celebration of the 70th anniversary of the establishment of their order in America, by giving an entertainment at Odd Fellows hall on Friday evening, April 26th, which will be for the members of the order and their families only.

The Empire Cross Spring Co., builders of the patrol wagon, are crowding the work right along as fast as possible. They expect to have the whole wagon put up sometime to-morrow, and by next week it will be ready for the paint shop, and a week or ten days after that ready for service.

The members of the fire police company are expending considerable sums of money in making this new addition to the fire service as complete as possible, and when completed they propose to make it one of the handsomest and most useful pieces of fire apparatus in the city.

Nearly a thousand dollars have already been expended for horses, harness, wagons, etc., and much more will be required before the thing is wholly completed, besides the salary of the driver. All this expense is being borne by the members of the company. True, next February they will receive the insurance tax, which will amount to nearly eight hundred dollars, but this will not half reimburse the spot cash expended at this time. It will take at least three years of insurance tax to fully reimburse the company.

The Madison Journal: "Hon. Ogden H. Fethers, of Janeville, was noticed on the floor of the senate last evening. He is in the city arranging to accompany Governor Hoard to the Washington centennial inauguration in New York as one of the commissioners whose appointment was authorized under act of the legislature."

—Alfred J. B. McLean's new bird, the Toucan, is attracting considerable attention, being the first one of this species ever brought to this city. The bird possesses beautiful plumage, and a variety of colors in its beak, which is of very odd shape and enormous size when compared with the bird. It is in a cage at Ald. McLean's news stand, 157 West Milwaukee street.
